

The Man Who Invented Narnia Programme

Welcome & Prayer

Principal's Remarks

The Rt Rev. Dr Stephen Andrews
Principal of Wycliffe College

Featured Presentation

Prof. John Bowen
Professor Emeritus at Wycliffe College

Break Out Groups

Large Group Session

Looking Forward

Rob Henderson
Executive Director

Prize Draw

Closing Prayer

Wycliffe
College

Break-Out Group

Discussion Questions

What can we learn about evangelism from the way C.S. Lewis came to Christ?

Of all the different ways C.S. Lewis was helped to move toward Christ, which are still likely to be effective in our culture, and which probably won't be helpful?

Sometimes people say, "What we need today is a new C.S. Lewis". Do you agree?

In the Narnia stories, C.S. Lewis tried to evangelize people through their imagination. In Mere Christianity, on the other hand, he addressed people's minds. How is the church today most likely to engage people in our culture with the Gospel—imagination, intellect—or something else?

Looking back to your early years, do you see the ways God was calling you closer to Him?

Helpful links

Ballot for Prize Draw:

<https://bit.ly/2Ty6USG>

Give Online:

<https://bit.ly/3uB9ELO>

Subscribe to The Word@Wycliffe:

<https://bit.ly/3uGVklo>

