This description is intended to assist in the course approval process and to assist students in determining whether this course will help them achieve their educational objectives and the learning goals of their program. It is not a learning contract. The details of the description are subject to change before the course begins. The course syllabus will be available to the class at the beginning of the course.

Course Identification

Course Number: WYB1012YY
Course Name: Introduction to Biblical Hebrew
Campus: St. George

Instructor Information

Instructor: Mr. Andrew Witt
E-mail: andy.witt@mail.utoronto.ca
Office Hours:
Teaching Assistant:
E-mail:

Course Prerequisites or Requisites

None

Course Description

The goal of Introduction to Biblical Hebrew is to equip both students training for designated ministry and those students who wish to continue in advanced degree studies with a working knowledge of biblical Hebrew, as well as for subsequent study in syntax and exegesis. The course itself takes the full academic year (Fall 2016 and Winter 2017), and it will introduce students to the fundamentals of Biblical Hebrew, including phonology (sounds), morphology (grammatical forms), basic syntax (the components of a meaningful text unit), and the most frequent vocabulary. At the end of the whole year course, students will have acquired rudimentary skills useful for the purposes of homiletical exegesis, scholarship pursuit, and the general pleasure of textual theological interpretations.

Course Methodology

Lectures, readings, homework exercises, weekly quizzes, examinations, presentations

Course Outcomes

| COURSE OUTCOMES | COURSE ELEMENT | PROGRAM OUTCOMES |
By the end of this course, students will gain a basic understanding of the various elements of the Biblical Hebrew language. Emphasis will be placed on: (1) a basic vocabulary of the most frequently occurring words; (2) a knowledge of the most important morphological patterns, paradigms and grammatical structures; (3) experience in translating simple Hebrew sentences.

This outcome will be achieved through these course elements:

All elements of the course

This course outcome corresponds to these aspects of Wycliffe’s statements of outcomes (MTS, MDiv)

MTS: 1.7

MDiv: 1.7

Course Resources on the Web

Dr. Charles Grebe's lectures using Ross: http://www.animatedhebrew.com/lectures/index.html

- These will be quite helpful to supplement our class lectures and more fully cover the material from the textbook. Check out a lot of the website, which is keyed in to Ross (e.g. worksheets galore!).

- I hesitate to give you this link, but it is not terribly hard to find with a simple Google search. The fact of the matter is that your mark on the homework (as outlined below) is not given based on the correctness of your answers, but in their completion. You are paying good money to take this course and learn Hebrew. If you are not going to put in the time to learn it by practicing with the exercises, then there is nothing to gain and everything to lose by cheating on the homework. Use these answers as a way to make sure you understand the lessons, and maybe check your first few answers before doing the rest.

There are a number of links on the web to help you with vocabulary flashcards, and several are keyed to Ross' chapters. The tried and true method is to buy a pack of notecards, cut them in half, and write out the vocabulary.

- Memrise: this is a free App for your smart phone (Android | Apple). Once you login to the app, search for "Ross Introducing Biblical Hebrew," which all the vocabulary for the course divided into their corresponding lessons. This is a very effective tool for learning vocab.

- Biblical Hebrew Vocabulary+: Another App for your smartphone (Android | Apple), but this one will run you around $3.00. It has the Hebrew vocabulary for several prominent introductory Hebrew books, including Ross. You can also work your way through the top 1000 vocab words from this list too.

- Audio recordings of all the vocab lists and most exercises through chapter 37 of the book.

(2) Longer Intro of New Material (60 mins)

Evaluation

Requirements

A. Attendance. Attendance is obligatory for each class in accordance with the Student Handbook. Missing classes will hinder your ability to progress in the cumulative nature of learning a new language.

B. Completion of Exercises. It is imperative in the study of a language to keep up with the daily work. Every class period will have an assignment due. A student who does not work these completely will not do well in the course. Working assignments does not mean getting all of the answers right; it means completing the assignments, surfacing errors based on class discussions and trying to understand things missed in the homework by consulting the textbook, another student or the professor (in that order). The homework is designed to prepare the student for quizzes and exams. A student doing consistently well in daily work will probably do well in the exams (unless the homework is occupying an inordinate amount of time).

C. Quizzes. Quizzes will test the memorized material, i.e. vocabulary and paradigms. The two lowest quiz scores will be dropped (assuming all the quizzes are taken). Missed regular quizzes for excused absences must be made up by the next class period. If you arrive late for class, you must wait outside the classroom until after the quiz is graded and then take it during the first break.

D. Examinations. There will be three examinations during each term of the two-term course. The examination will include all information studied up to that point. In other words, by their nature, language exams are cumulative, although the focus of each will be on the material since the previous exam.

E. Optional: Word Study Presentations. During the second half of the course, students are given the option of presenting one word-study. This will be a 15-20 minute presentation of research done on a Hebrew word, chosen from a list provided by the instructor. Instructions to follow on doing word studies. Doing the presentation is not required, but it will give the student bonus points used at the instructor's discretion to boost her or his mark.

B 73–76% 3.0 Good
B- 70–72% 2.7 Satisfactory
FZ 0–69% 0 Failure

Grades without numerical equivalent:
CR Designates credit; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value
NCR Designates failure; has no numerical equivalent, but has a grade point value of 0 and is included in the GPA calculation
SDF Standing deferred (a temporary extension)
INC Permanent incomplete; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value
WDR Withdrawal without academic penalty
AEG May be given to a final year student who, because of illness, has completed at least 60% of the course, but not the whole course, and who would not otherwise be able to convocate; has no numerical equivalent and no grade point value

Policy on Assignment Extensions

Basic Degree students are expected to complete all course work by the end of the term in which they are registered. Under exceptional circumstances, with the written permission of the instructor, students may request an extension (SDF = “standing deferred”) beyond the term. An extension, when offered, will have a mutually agreed upon deadline that does not extend beyond the conclusion of the following term. An SDF must be requested no later than the last day of classes of the term in which the course is taken. The request form is available on the college website or from the Registrar’s office.

One percentage point per day will be deducted on the course grade if an extension has not been requested by the stated deadline.

Course grades. Consistently with the policy of the University of Toronto, course grades submitted by an instructor are reviewed by a committee of the instructor’s college before being posted. Course grades may be adjusted where they do not comply with University grading policy (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/Assets/Governing+Council+Digital+Assets/Policies/PDF/grading.pdf) or college grading policy.

Policies

Accessibility. Students with a disability or health consideration are entitled to accommodation. Students must register at the University of Toronto’s Accessibility Services offices; information is available at http://www.accessibility.utoronto.ca/. The sooner a student seeks accommodation, the quicker we can assist.

Plagiarism. Students submitting written material in courses are expected to provide full documentation for sources of both words and ideas in footnotes or endnotes. Direct quotations should be placed within quotation marks. (If small changes are made in the quotation, they should be indicated by appropriate punctuation such as brackets and ellipses, but the quotation still counts as a direct quotation.) Failure to document borrowed material constitutes plagiarism, which is a serious breach of academic, professional, and Christian ethics. An instructor who discovers evidence of student plagiarism is not permitted to deal with the situation individually but is required to report it to his or her head of college or delegate according to the TST Basic Degree Handbook (linked from http://www.tst.edu/academic/resources-forms/handbooks and the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaviorac.htm), a student who plagiarizes in this course. Students will be assumed to have read the document “Avoidance of plagiarism in theological writing” published by the Graham L-library of Trinity and Wycliffe Colleges (http://www.trinity.utoronto.ca/Library_Archives/Theological_Resources/Tools/Guides/plag.htm).

Turnitin.com. Students may be required to submit their course essays to Turnitin.com for a review of textual similarity and detection of possible plagiarism. In doing so, students will allow their essays to be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where they will be used solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University's use of the Turnitin.com service are described on the Turnitin.com web site.

Other academic offences. TST students come under the jurisdiction of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaviorac.htm).

Writing Style. The writing standard for the Toronto School of Theology is Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, 7th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007), which is available at Crux Books.
