None.

Course Description

In this course, we will look to the bible, to Christian theology, to historical trends and to social science research including child development and family systems theories to cast a robust, biblical, dynamic and evidence-based vision of nurturing children, youth and families in the Christian life.

We will examine a variety ministry models and practices in light of biblical teaching, and focus on 4 core biblical values: 1) children are vulnerable and in need of protection; 2) children are fully human, gifts, and created in the Image of God; 3) children are sinful beings, in need of guidance and instruction; and 4) children reveal God to the adult world. A wide range of literature will be explored, and students will have the opportunity to use their assignments to explore their own interests and ministry goals.

Our strategy will be to cast a wide theological vision, and then to consider practical application in three strands of ministry: children, youth and family. Indeed, these are not isolated ministries, and will be presented as a seamless whole, with age appropriate and context specific practical applications provided.

Course Methodology

Active and inquiry-based learning is a high priority in this class, and a key component of the instructor’s pedagogical strategies. The course methodology will include lectures, group discussions and readings. You will be introduced to a wide range of resources, and learn to use them to respond to real life key questions and issues in your own ministry context. Preparation of your assignments – an annotated bibliography, a resource development project and a final paper – will also be part of your learning. Come prepared to engage, to be challenged and to grow.

Course Resources

Required Course Texts

Please read ONE of these three books. Choose the one that is most relevant to your ministry context. Choose the remainder of your course reading from the bibliography below, to a total of 250 pages. Use this reading to complete your annotated bibliography assignment. Please consider your choices carefully, and choose your reading in keeping with what you need to learn from this course.

Course Website(s)

- Blackboard https://weblogin.utoronto.ca/. This course uses Blackboard for its course website. To access it, go to the UofT portal login page at http://portal.utoronto.ca and login using your UTORid and password. Once you have logged in to the portal using your UTORid and password, look for the My Courses module, where you’ll find the link to the website for all your Blackboard-based courses. (Your course registration with ROSI gives you access to the course website at Blackboard.) Note also the information at http://www.portalinfo.utoronto.ca/content/information-students. Students who have trouble accessing Blackboard should ask Thomas Power for further help.

- We will also use many web-based resources, during class and for individual research:

Class Schedule

Each day will begin with a morning circle and a chance for students to share quotes. As a courtesy, please be in class promptly at 9am as this morning circle is integral to our learning together. We will also be sure to end promptly at 4pm each day. Please feel free to email me throughout the week with questions or comments about course material. I will set aside time in the evenings to respond.

Monday (May 1st)
Morning: Historical, biblical context and overview of children, youth and families in the church (we aren’t starting from scratch!)
Intake sheet

Afternoon: Understanding family systems (and the social sciences can help us with our tasks…)
(Learning outcome 2)
Introduce “Good Soil” concept
Environments, Values and Evidence: principles for children’s ministry
Go over syllabus, rubrics and assignments in detail
On Monday, we will specifically work with content that will help you fulfill learning outcomes 1, 2, 4 and 5).

Tuesday (May 2nd)

Morning: The cultural context of today’s children and teens (includes risk behaviours)
Environments, Evidence and Values: how do we put them together?
practical exercise
Begin to articulate our own theological/biblical vision of ministry to and with children, families and youth. (We will refine this all week. This will help you to demonstrate learning outcome 1.)

Afternoon:
Theme 1: Children are vulnerable and in need of protection
Cultural context of our ministry
Understanding and supporting families in Canadian society (learning outcomes 2, 4)
On Tuesday, our learning will help you to meet learning outcomes 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6)

Wednesday (May 3rd)

Morning:
Theme 2: Children are gifts from God and fully human, made in the Imago Dei
Children and teenagers are gifts to the whole intergenerational community
Involving children and teenagers in the worshipping life of the church (learning outcome 3)
Intergenerational ministry as the heart of all church ministries.

Afternoon:
Theme 3: children are sinful beings, in need of guidance and instruction
Inquiry based learning, and other pedagogical tools for engaging with youth
Guidance and discipline at church and in the home
Approaching sin and redemption with children
Inquiry Based Learning
WISE approach to teaching and guiding children
The Search Institute: developmental assets of faith
Sign up for consultations
On Wednesday, our learning together will help us to address learning outcomes 1, 3 and 4.

Thursday (May 4th)

Morning:
Theme 4: children reveal God to the adult world
Child theologies movement
Nurturing spiritual development in children, youth and families

Afternoon: Individual Consultation about paper topics and other assignments
This time has been reserved for individual meetings with every student to consult about papers and other class assignments. Please be sure to sign up for a 10 minute slot.
You also are responsible to meet with your children’s spirituality group for a minimum of one hour (maximum your choice) to plan your 5 minute presentation for Friday morning.
You should be prepared to meet for at least one hour this afternoon, though you may choose to meet for longer.
You also need to give each other each 5 or 10 minutes of peer review on your projects. Ask each other good questions, push each other thinking, share ideas… help each other do great work for children and families in God’s Kingdom. On Thursday, our learning together will help us to meet learning outcomes 1, 4 and 6.

Friday (May 5th)

Morning:
- Tying up loose ends
- Spirituality presentations (these presentations will demonstrate learning outcome 4)
- the seven steps of planning (practical exercises)

Afternoon:
- Practical Issues: documents, policies and planning
- Final review of expectations around assignments, chance to ask questions
- The possibility and hope of the church
- Our communal learning on Friday will help us to meet all 6 learning outcomes.

Evaluation

Requirements

During the course, we will have ongoing discussion about themes that arise from lectures, from assigned readings, and from students’ questions and experiences. This course will be highly interactive and while it will include substantial theoretical content, the practical implications and developing skills for practical ministry are a high priority.

1. Required Reading and Class Participation: Each student is asked to come to the second class having read at minimum one chapter (of your choice) from any of the required texts. From this reading, please come prepared to share a short, favourite quote that represents something you think is important in children, youth or family ministry. (15% of final grade). 5% of the final grade will be based on attendance and in-class participation, 5% will be based on your spiritual development presentation and 5% will be based on a self-assessment of one’s own participation and engagement in class.

2. Annotated Bibliography: (25%) Due

Students will submit an annotated bibliography of their course reading. While some readings are required (these will be identified in the first class), you will also have the opportunity to cater your readings to your own ministry context. You must choose your own readings from the bibliography in this syllabus (an updated version will be provided in class). You are responsible for reading 250 pages (primarily of your choice!) Please choose articles intentionally: those that challenge you, those that help you explore new ideas and those that are especially pertinent to your own ministry context. For each article/book you read, please include the citation and one (short) paragraph describing what you took away from the reading that contributes to your own vision of ministry for and with children.

The purpose of this assignment is to give you a chance to explore and think critically about a broad range of literature in the area of children’s ministry and children’s spirituality. This reading will help you develop your own vision of children’s ministry (learning objective 1) and will be applicable to learning objectives 2 through 6. You will particularly demonstrate learning outcome 5.

An example of the annotated bibliography format will be given in class.

3. Resource development (worth 25% of mark and due )

Creating positive experiences for children and families is central to children’s ministry and to nurturing children in their spiritual lives. This assignment is very practical, and the end result will be twofold:

1. Some kind of practical resource that can be used in a ministry context
2. A 2 – 3 page rational, referencing your own theological vision of children’s ministry, that explains what you have created/developed and why it is needed.

Examples of this assignment will be given in class. This assignment has a lot of flexibility. In the past, students have developed some marvelous resources: a “lego-story” to be used in their church’s VBS; a handbook for churches to welcome children with special needs; an illustrated children’s book about a child whose grandmother has dementia; a resource to teach children to pray; liturgies and prayers for dead pets, first day of school and the start of summer holidays and a job description for a children’s minister in their church. One student developed a short handbook for children who were experiencing their parents’ divorce; another student developed an Easter event for the children in her own church. More examples will be given in class, and I will work with you to match your resource development to your ministry context.

Depending on what you choose to do, this assignment will potentially demonstrate all 6 course learning outcomes. In particular, you will demonstrate learning outcome 6 through this assignment.

4. Final Paper: (35%) Due

Drawing from class discussions, your own ministry context and supplementary readings, choose an issue or question related to children’s ministry in the church to explore. Students will consult with the instructor throughout the week of classes to agree on a topic and/or research question. It is hoped that the question or issue the student chooses to explore will be of practical benefit to his or her own ministry context or to his or her personal interest in nurturing children in the Christian life. Ideally, this paper will have a theological/ theoretical component and also consider practical implications. In the past, students have written about a diverse range of topics including: baptism; children with autism; consumerism; spiritual development; prayer; popular culture; involving children in worship; teaching children about money; mental health, children and the church; youth ministry; children and death, family ministry, training leaders and all kinds of other important topics. This course will demonstrate many, if not all, of the course learning objectives. Please choose a topic that you care about, and that you want to consider more deeply in your own life and ministry.

This paper should be in the range of 8-10 pages, double-spaced. It should allow you to address most, if not all, of our learning outcomes.

Grades without numerical equivalent:

CR    Designates credit; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value
NCR   Designates failure; has no numerical equivalent, but has a grade point value of 0 and is included in the GPA calculation
SDF   Standing deferred (a temporary extension)
INC   Permanent incomplete; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value
WDR   Withdrawal without academic penalty
AEG   May be given to a final year student who, because of illness, has completed at least 60% of the course, but not the whole course, and who would not otherwise be able to convocate; has no numerical equivalent and no grade point value

Policy on Assignment Extensions

Basic Degree students are expected to complete all course work by the end of the term in which they are registered. Under exceptional circumstances, with the written permission of the instructor, students may request an extension (SDF = “standing deferred”) beyond the term. An extension, when offered, will have a mutually agreed upon deadline that does not extend beyond the conclusion of the following term. An SDF must be requested no later than the last day of classes of the term in which the course is taken. The request form is available on the college website or from the Registrar's office.

One percentage point per day will be deducted on the course grade if an extension has not been requested by the stated deadline.

Course grades. Consistently with the policy of the University of Toronto, course grades submitted by an instructor are reviewed by a committee of the instructor’s college before being posted. Course grades may be adjusted where they do not comply with University grading policy (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/Assets/Governing+Council+Digital+Assets/Policies/PDF/grading.pdf) or college grading policy.

Policies

Accessibility. Students with a disability or health consideration are entitled to accommodation. Students must register at the University of Toronto’s Accessibility Services offices; information is available at http://www.accessibility.utoronto.ca/. The sooner a student seeks accommodation, the quicker we can assist.

Plagiarism. Students submitting written material in courses are expected to provide full documentation for sources of both words and ideas in footnotes or endnotes. Direct quotations should be placed within quotation marks. (If small changes are made in the quotation, they should be indicated by appropriate punctuation such as brackets and ellipses, but the quotation still counts as a direct quotation.) Failure to document borrowed material constitutes plagiarism, which is a serious breach of academic, professional, and Christian ethics. An instructor who discovers evidence of student plagiarism is not permitted to deal with the situation individually but is required to report it to his or her head of college or delegate according to the TST Basic Degree Handbook (linked from http://www.tst.edu/academic/resources-forms/handbooks and the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behavac.htm), a student who plagiarizes in this course. Students will be assumed to have read the document “Avoidance of plagiarism in theological writing”
Other academic offences. TST students come under the jurisdiction of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm).

Writing Style. The writing standard for the Toronto School of Theology is Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, 8th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2013), which is available at Crux Books.

Course Evaluations. At the end of the course students are expected to complete a course evaluation. The evaluation is done online and instructions will be contained in an e-mail message that will be sent out by the Wycliffe College registrar.

Bibliography

Please read ONE of these three books. Choose the one that is most relevant to your ministry context.

Choose the remainder of your course reading from this list, to a total of 250 pages. Use this reading to complete your annotated bibliography assignment. Please consider your choices carefully, and choose your reading in keeping with what you need to learn from this course.
