Requirements

ASSIGNMENTS

See the document “Wycliffe style guide” on the course website for instructions about formatting your papers. Accurate grammar, punctuation and spelling are essential for clear communication. Submit a hard copy of your papers to me in class on the day they are due, complete with title page.

1. Sign up to do a five minute oral presentation on one artifact of contemporary Canadian culture. This could be a physical object, service, relational norm, artistic exhibit or expression, advertisement, or document.

- Describe the artifact you have chosen, and explain why you consider it significant as an artifact of contemporary Canadian culture. Give something of the history and worldview that is implicit or explicit in the artifact itself, and what this artifact says about the surrounding culture.
- Explain how the Gospel relates to this artifact, both ideologically and practically
- Explore what forms of Church, evangelism, and discipleship, might be most helpful in engaging with and addressing the issues reflected in this artifact.

Length: 5 minute oral presentation

Weight: 10%

Due date: On the day for which you signed up, Sept. 28th to Nov. 16th

2. Read Vincent Donovan’s Christianity Rediscovered. Write a report on the five most important ideas that you come across in the book, and discuss how these might shape your own approach to evangelism, catechesis and worship. Please write also about any points on which you find yourself disagreeing with or questioning him. (You do not need to footnote every reference to the book. Simply give the page number in brackets.) Avoid long quotations.

Length: 1250 words (5 pages)

Weight: 20%

Due date: September 28th

3. Read Heidi Neumark’s Breathing Space: A Spiritual Journey in the South Bronx. Write a report on the five most important things you learned from this book about contextualized mission. Discuss how these ideas might influence your own approach to such things as worship, pastoral ministry, and cultivating organizational change. (You do not need to footnote every reference to the book. Simply give the page number in brackets.) Avoid long quotations.

Length: 1250 words (5 pages)

Weight: 20%

Due date: October 19th

4. Integrative Paper:

Option 1: Consider a distinct sociological group within contemporary Canadian culture, e.g. Baby Boomers, Generation X, Millennials, urban aboriginals, low-income single parents, recent Muslim immigrants, rural Quebecers, 2nd generation Korean Canadians. Identify and document the cultural distinctives of the group you have chosen. Explain how the Gospel is likely to best connect with this group, both ideologically and practically, how evangelism might happen among this group, and what forms Christian discipleship and church might take within this group.

Option 2: Conduct a study of a particular geographic neighbourhood. What particular sub-cultures are represented in this neighbourhood? What are the specific cultural issues that are of primary importance? (eg. Poverty/wealth, age & gender, ethnicity, commuting, parenting, isolation & other social issues, technology) Explain how the Christian Gospel addresses such issues and how it could be framed to do so. How might evangelism happen among those living in this neighbourhood?, Consider what forms Christian discipleship and church might take.

Credit will be given for making connections between the course readings, and the topic of your paper.

Weight: 50%

Length: 2500 words (10 pages)

Due date: December 7th, at the beginning of class.

Grading System

Letter Grade	Numerical Equivalents	Grade Point	Grasp of Subject Matter
A+	90–100%	4.0	Profound & Creative
A	85–89%	4.0	Outstanding
A-	80–84%	3.7	Excellent
B+	77–79%	3.3	Very Good
B	73–76%	3.0	Good
B-	70–72%	2.7	Satisfactory
FZ	0–69%	0	Failure

Grades without numerical equivalent:

CR	Designates credit; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value
NCR	Designates failure; has no numerical equivalent, but has a grade point value of 0 and is included in the GPA calculation
SDF	Standing deferred (a temporary extension)
INC	Permanent incomplete; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value
WDR	Withdrawal without academic penalty
AEG	May be given to a final year student who, because of illness, has completed at least 60% of the course, but not the whole course, and who would not otherwise be able to convocate; has no numerical equivalent and no grade point value

Policy on Assignment Extensions

Basic Degree students are expected to complete all course work by the end of the term in which they are registered. Under exceptional circumstances, with the written permission of the instructor, students may request an extension (SDF = “standing deferred”) beyond the term. An extension, when offered, will have a mutually agreed upon deadline that does not extend beyond the conclusion of the following term. An SDF must be requested no later than the last day of classes of the term in which the course is taken. The request form is available on the college website or from the Registrar’s office.

One percentage point per day will be deducted on the course grade if an extension has not been requested by the stated deadline.

Course grades. Consistently with the policy of the University of Toronto, course grades submitted by an instructor are reviewed by a committee of the instructor's college before being posted. Course grades may be adjusted where they do not comply with University grading policy (<http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/Assets/Governing+Council+Digital+Assets/Policies/PDF/grading.pdf>) or college grading policy.

Policies

Accessibility. Students with a disability or health consideration are entitled to accommodation. Students must register at the University of Toronto's Accessibility Services offices; information is available at <http://www.accessibility.utoronto.ca/>. The sooner a student seeks accommodation, the quicker we can assist.

Plagiarism. Students submitting written material in courses are expected to provide full documentation for sources of both words and ideas in footnotes or endnotes. Direct quotations should be placed within quotation marks. (If small changes are made in the quotation, they should be indicated by appropriate punctuation such as brackets and ellipses, but the quotation still counts as a direct quotation.) Failure to document borrowed material constitutes plagiarism, which is a serious breach of academic, professional, and Christian ethics. An instructor who discovers evidence of student plagiarism is not permitted to deal with the situation individually but is required to report it to his or her head of college or delegate according to the TST Basic Degree Handbook (linked from <http://www.tst.edu/academic/resources-forms/handbooks> and the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (<http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm>), a student who plagiarizes in this course. Students will be assumed to have read the document "Avoidance of plagiarism in theological writing" published by the Graham Library of Trinity and Wycliffe Colleges (http://www.trinity.utoronto.ca/Library_Archives/Theological_Resources/Tools/Guides/plag.htm).

Turnitin.com. Students may be required to submit their course essays to Turnitin.com for a review of textual similarity and detection of possible plagiarism. In doing so, students will allow their essays to be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database, where they will be used solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University's use of the Turnitin.com service are described on the Turnitin.com web site.

Other academic offences. TST students come under the jurisdiction of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (<http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm>).

Writing Style. The writing standard for the Toronto School of Theology is Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, 7th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007), which is available at Crux Books.
