Course Description

The immense suffering of the modern world has had a profound impact on one’s understanding of God and his relationship to human suffering. The growing consensus that God himself suffers in solidarity and love with the wounded ones needs re-examination. This course addresses the question of impassibility-passibility from the biblical, historical, theological and pastoral perspectives. Basic to the course are these questions: (a) Is a God who is impassible more loving and compassionate than a suffering God? (b) How do Christology, soteriology and Trinity interact in one’s formulation of a doctrine of God? (c) How does one counsel those who suffer, if God is an unmoved mover or the apathetic deity?

Course Methodology

Lecture, seminar, and student interactions

Evaluation

Requirements

1. Class attendance and Participation: 15% Students are expected to attend every class, do the assigned readings in advance and be prepared to engage in class.
2. Student Presentation: 20% The student will offer a brief presentation of an assigned topic, and lead a class discussion. He/she prepares enough copies for the whole class. The submitted draft to the professor for grading should comprise no more than 6 pages, double spaced. It should be submitted on the day when the student presents his/her paper.
3. A Book Review: 25% Select a book from the list of bibliography below. The paper should consist of a summary of the author’s view and a critical response to it. It should be double spaced, occupying 8-10 pages. The size is 12 of the Times New Roman font. Proper documentations are required, if external sources are quoted. Due date: Feb., 09, 2017.
4. Final Paper: 40% Basic Degree Students should use the materials taught and presented in classes, and from the list of bibliography below, to substantiate their stance. In Chicago style, the paper should be double spaced, occupying 12-15 pages. The size is 12 of the Times New Roman font. The paper should have at least 35 footnotes, drawing on materials from a minimum of 8 different sources.

The Advanced Degree students are required to produce a scholarly paper of 25 pages. The size is 12 of the Times New Roman font. The paper should have at least 50 footnotes, drawing on materials from a minimum of 15 different sources.

Evaluation will be based on the following criteria:
(a) The clarity and accuracy of the arguments;
(b) The intelligent use of texts to enrich the discussion;
(c) The awareness of theological and philosophical issues in the argument;
(d) The writing and presentational skills.

Deadline: April 06, 2017

Note: Student papers must be submitted in two versions: word document as well as pdf. Please send them to both emails stated above.

Grades without numerical equivalent:

| CR           | Designates credit; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value |
| NCR          | Designates failure; has no numerical equivalent, but has a grade point value of 0 and is included in the GPA calculation |
| SDF          | Standing deferred (a temporary extension) |
| INC          | Permanent incomplete; has no numerical equivalent or grade point value |
| WDR          | Withdrawal without academic penalty |
| AEG          | May be given to a final year student who, because of illness, has completed at least 60% of the course, but not the whole course, and who would not otherwise be able to convocate; has no numerical equivalent and no grade point value |

Policy on Assignment Extensions

Basic Degree students are expected to complete all course work by the end of the term in which they are registered. Under exceptional circumstances, with the written permission of the instructor, students may request an extension (SDF = “standing deferred”) beyond the term. An extension, when offered, will have a mutually agreed upon deadline that does not extend beyond the conclusion of the following term. An SDF must be requested no later than the last day of classes of the term in which the course is taken. The request form is available on the college website or from the Registrar’s office.
One percentage point per day will be deducted on the course grade if an extension has not been requested by the stated deadline.

Course grades. Consistently with the policy of the University of Toronto, course grades submitted by an instructor are reviewed by a committee of the instructor's college before being posted. Course grades may be adjusted where they do not comply with University grading policy (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/Assets/Governing+Council+Digital+Assets/Policies/PDF/grading.pdf) or college grading policy.

Policies

Accessibility. Students with a disability or health consideration are entitled to accommodation. Students must register at the University of Toronto's Accessibility Services offices; information is available at http://www.accessibility.utoronto.ca/. The sooner a student seeks accommodation, the quicker we can assist.

Plagiarism. Students submitting written material in courses are expected to provide full documentation for sources of both words and ideas in footnotes or endnotes. Direct quotations should be placed within quotation marks. (If small changes are made in the quotation, they should be indicated by appropriate punctuation such as brackets and ellipses, but the quotation still counts as a direct quotation.) Failure to document borrowed material constitutes plagiarism, which is a serious breach of academic, professional, and Christian ethics. An instructor who discovers evidence of student plagiarism is not permitted to deal with the situation individually but is required to report it to his or her head of college or delegate according to the TST Basic Degree Handbook (linked from http://www.tst.edu/academic/resources-forms/handbooks and the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm), a student who plagiarizes in this course. Students will be assumed to have read the document “Avoidance of plagiarism in theological writing” published by the Graham Library of Trinity and Wycliffe Colleges (http://www.trinity.utoronto.ca/Library_Archives/Theological_Resources/Tools/Guides/plag.htm).

Other academic offences. TST students come under the jurisdiction of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters (http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm).

Writing Style. The writing standard for the Toronto School of Theology is Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, 8th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2013), which is available at Crux Books.
