REASONS FOR HOPE

As our culture is increasingly divided over the role of religion, how can we, as Christians, have meaningful conversations about faith, and be ready to give a reason for the hope within?

Saturday April 23, 2016 | 9:30 am - 11:30 am
Wycliffe College, 5 Hoskin Avenue, Toronto

SPEAKER: AMY ORR-EWING

Amy Orr-Ewing is Director of Programmes for the Oxford Centre for Christian Apologetics. She is a passionate exponent of a rational Christian response to many of the pressing cultural issues of the day, bringing her theological knowledge to bear on a wide variety of subjects. Amy speaks and lectures worldwide and has written two books: Why Trust the Bible? and But Is It Real?. Amy and her husband Frog lead a church in Buckinghamshire called Latimer Minster, which they planted in 2010.
